

Mask wearing policy – April 2022

With Covid cases and hospitalizations still high, and a new variant starting to take over, the advice of health officials is that mask wearing is still a good idea.

However, Royal City Tennis will continue to follow provincial regulations. At this time, the province no longer requires you to show a vaccine passport or to wear a mask indoors.